

Network Throughput

Network Throughput is the amount of network traffic generated, typically measured in megabits per second. This is a floating average value calculated over a set unit of time.

From:

<http://docs.intenogroup.com/glossary/> - Inteno Glossary

Permanent link:

http://docs.intenogroup.com/glossary/n/network_throughput

Last update: 2018/08/10 18:16

