

Open Resolver

An Open Resolver resolver is a DNS server that accepts DNS lookups from any client on the Internet, without authentication or authorization.

This makes the service vulnerable to the DNS Amplification Attack type of denial of service attack.

From:

<http://docs.intenogroup.com/glossary/> - Inteno Glossary

Permanent link:

http://docs.intenogroup.com/glossary/o/open_resolver

Last update: 2018/08/10 18:16

